Honor Burgess

Working Practices and Legislation

4.2 Explain why copyright is important in the film industry

Why does copyright law exist? protects original work.	Copyright law exists because it means that people can't copy your work (if it means it was a success beforehand - peoples work needs to be original.
What kind of work is covered by copyright? artistic work	memes, artwork, songs, novels, poetry, ~~and~~ software and architecture.
What might happen if you were to use copyrighted material in your film?	then we wouldn't be able to ~~it~~ send it out as it's against ~~the~~ regulations - we would get fined.
How can you make sure not to infringe copyright law in your film?	to double check ~~that~~ that your ~~idea~~ is original inspired but original.
How has copyright law and other IP regulation affected your film production?	affects the ~~work~~ the work we can produce.

1. 12-10